

February

Black History Month

Oral History Workshop

Valerie Higgins, Fermilab Archivist and Historian

Date: Tuesday, February 13, 2024, 11 a.m.- 12 p.m. CTS

Fermilab archivist, Valerie Higgins, will highlight the powerful impact of preserving history through storytelling. The workshop will share impactful techniques for conducting interviews to preserve your own family history. This workshop will provide you with a deeper understanding of the following presentation on The Bloomington-Normal Black History Project (BNBHP).

The Bloomington-Normal Black History Project (BNBHP)

Jeff Woodard, Director of Marketing
McLean County Museum of History

Date: Wednesday, February 28, 2024, 1 p.m. -2 p.m. CTS

The Bloomington-Normal Black History Project (BNBHP) founded in 1982 and its collections span the 19th and 20th centuries. The McLean County Museum of History will introduce Dr. Mildred Pratt's contributions to the project and virtually share its collection of photographs, portraits, booklets, articles, and photocopies related to club organizations and churches of the local Black community.

This Office of Equity, Diversity, Inclusion and Accessibility 2024 Inclusion Matters event is hosted in collaboration with the African American Black Association LRG.

For accommodations contact Anahi Ruiz Beltran (anahirb@fnal.gov).

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

Office of Science